

PACA Membership Benefits

The Prince Albert Construction Association is a non-profit organization with a mandate to provide tendering, education and networking opportunities to members active in the commercial, industrial and institutional construction industry in our province. Our association has been operating since the early 1960s. Our members include general contractors, sub-contractors, manufacturers/suppliers or companies who specialize in construction services along with companies who support our local construction industry such as architectural firms, engineering firms, financial institutions, insurance agencies, government agencies, etc.

PACA members have access to a number of services offered through the association.
